AZIZI  LIFE

Azizi is a Swahili word that means precious or treasured, and it is our belief that every person's life is Azizi.

Azizi Life is a fair trade organization dedicated to partnering with skilled Rwandan artisans in their vision to lift their families from poverty. Working since 2008, we have now cultivated partnerships with more than 500 artisans. Azizi Life serves as a bridge, linking artisans, designers, and global customers to offer high-quality, ethically-sourced goods for life and gifting. ETHICALLY + SUSTAINABLY MADE

All Azizi Life products are carefully made by hand in Rwanda. Artisans use local, natural, and renewable materials like sisal, banana leaves, and wood. Our modern and traditional collections include baskets, woven bowls, home decor, tabletop, woven jewelry, and bags.

WOVEN BOWLS

Our woven bowls are hand stitched using natural, locally-grown sisal fibers over a sturdy core of forest grasses. Artisans weave up to 7 days to create these beautiful pieces. With a loop on the back for hanging, these pieces make a stunning bowl wall. They are also beautiful in entryways and on end tables and dining tables.

ABOUT RWANDA

Rwanda is a gorgeous country filled with green hills and spotted with small plots of farmland. Amidst this beauty, many struggle to survive. The large majority of Rwandans, including almost all of the artisans, are subsistence farmers and their crops alone are insufficient for their families' livelihoods.

Since the devastating genocide in 1994, the people of Rwanda have made remarkably significant strides towards healing, recovery, and development. Our artisan partners are using their craft for this purpose. Thank you for joining them as they build their families, community, and nation.

TELLING THE STORY

All Azizi Life products include hang-tags which feature the artisan's handwritten name, along with an impact statement to illustrate the meaning behind the product.

Looking to share more of the story? Azizi Life has created full-color postcards featuring the artisans and our partnership. These Connections Cards are available free of charge.
